Obituaries

Lawrence “Larry” Cherrey (43) died April 12, 2020 at his home in Shullsburg. He was the son of Glenn and Ila (Fowler) Cherrey. Larry enlisted in the U.S. Navy following graduation and served in WWII until his honorable discharge in 1946. He received a degree in Education from Platteville State Teachers College and his Master’s in Education Administration from UW-Madison. He married the love of his life, Ruth Bird, in 1953. Larry spent his working career in the field of education as first a teacher and coach and later a school principal and administrator.

He was a member of Centenary United Methodist Church, a lifetime member of McCann-Richards American Legion Post #105 and VFW Post, Shullsburg, and the Galena Elks Lodge 882. He was a former member of the Shullsburg Lions Club, Conservation Club, and interim director of Rainbow Ridge. He also served on the Shullsburg School Board, the Lafayette County Board and the Southwest Regional Planning Board.

Larry is survived by his wife, Ruth, his children: Lee (Rick) Gill, Lisa (Joe) Diedrich, both Shullsburg, and Kent (Joann) Cherry, N. Salt Lake, UT, 8 grandchildren, 3 step-grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and a sister, Marcella (Charles) Russell. He was preceded in death by his parents, his sister Carol Lennartz, his brother Darrell Cherrey, and one step great-grandson, DJ Lindsey.

Elizabeth “Betty” (March) Kraus (48), Shullsburg, WI, passed away on May 28, 2021 at her home. She was the daughter of Kenneth and Agnes (Gerbode) March. She married her best friend and life partner, Allen Kraus (48), in 1951. Together they spent their life farming in Monticello Township and raising their five children.

Betty was a member of Centenary United Methodist Church, Shullsburg, and a lifelong member of the Dunbarton Homemakers. She enjoyed crocheting, cross-stitching, doll-collecting, card games, and traveling with Allen. Together they visiting all fifty states. Her children and her grandchildren were her greatest joy. She is survived by her husband Allen, and her children: Bruce (Yvonne), Belmont, Brenda (Gregory) Mullikin, Shullsburg, Karen (Mark) Essex, Platteville, Kathie (Steve) Schwartz, Shullsburg, and Denise (Rick) Rolli, Verona, WI. She is further survived by her 7 grandchildren, 6 step-grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren, 9 step-great-grandchildren, and 4 great great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and one granddaughter, Dayna Mullikin.

Barbara (Anderson) McArdle (50), Madison, WI, died April 25, 2020. She was the daughter of T. Grant and Margaret (Cherrey) Anderson. She married William McArdle in 1954 and together they had 5 children. Barbara was 31 when Bill died.

She decided to go to college when her youngest child started kindergarten, and became a Business Education teacher. After graduating with honors from UW-Whitewater in 1971 she returned to Shullsburg to teach at high school. She also earned a Master’s Degree in education from UW-Madison. She retired from teaching in 1991 and soon moved to Madison. In retirement she traveled, visiting all seven continents, and volunteered at Meriter Hospital for 15 years.

Barbara is survived by her children: William “Mick” (Cheryl) McArdle, Lauren (Murray) Sheridan, Kerrin (Rory) Rhinesmith, Kathy (Craig) Woerth, and Carolyn (Bob) Arndorfer, two step-daughters: Debra (David) Hogue and Jeanette Koenig, 9 grandchildren, 2 step-grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Carole Getgood, and many cousins, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband and her parents, T. Grant Anderson, Margaret “Peg” and Arthur “Pa” Hicks, son-in-law Dale Koenig, and a great grandchild Elizabeth Warner.

Marcella (Cherrey) Russell, Shullsburg, passed away peacefully at her home on July 31, 2021. She was the daughter of Glenn and Ila (Fowler) Cherrey. Her father died when she was 4. Marcella grew up in Shullsburg and attended Shullsburg Public School with the Class of 1951. She married the love of her life, Charles “Chic” Russell in 1949 and they shared life together for over 72 years. They worked and raised their family on their dairy farm in Shullsburg Township for many years. Marcella was a Cub Scout den mother, a member of the Centenary Methodist Church, a Sunday school teacher, a youth fellowship leader, and a member of the Ada Circle. Governor Tommy Thompson appointed her to the State Fair Park Board in 1987 and she served there for 13 years. She also served on the Kids from Wisconsin Board.

After retiring from the farm they became proprietors of the Dairy Bar Restaurant at Yellowstone Lake for 5 years, running it from May to September. This led to them operating the Brewster Café in Shullsburg full time for nine years, making it a local and area destination. Somehow they found time over the years for travel to all 50 states plus Canada, the Caribbean Islands, and Mexico.

The support of her husband and family have helped Marcella during serious health crises over the last 10 years. She is survived by her husband, her children: Christine, Mark (Deb), Bruce (Sandy), Grant (Patty), and Scott (Susie Pundmann), 13 grandchildren, 3 step-grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. Her parents, her in-laws, two sisters: Carol Lennartz, and Mildred (in infancy), and two brothers: Darrell and Larry Cherrey, preceded her in death.

William G. "Bill" Webber (52), Shullsburg, died October 3, 2020 in Dubuque, IA. Bill was born in Oklahoma, the son of William G. and Monte (Denman) Webber. He married Mary Francis Morrow in 1956 and they made their life in Shullsburg. He worked with his father and brother in the family business, Webber Well Drilling, for most of his life.

Bill was proud of his native-American heritage and was a member of the Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma. In his younger years he enjoyed sports, especially baseball, and played on great SHS teams and semi-pro teams. He loved to tell stories, laugh, and visit with friends where ever he went. After 1992 Bill worked for the Wisconsin DNR and area property owners to locate and fill old, abandoned wells and mine shafts to improve and protect local water supplies. In 2012 Bill and Fran retired and moved to Texas to enjoy the warmer winters and friends they had made there. He moved back to Shullsburg in 2015 after Fran's death to be closer to family and old friends.

He is survived by many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Fran, their daughter Shelley, his brother Robert and a half-brother, Alvin Reynolds.

Robert "Bob" Francis Doyle (55), Shullsburg, passed away after a brief illness, following complications of a surgery, December 1, 2020.

Bob was the son of Thomas and Eunice (Nethery) Doyle. He grew up working on the family farm, Doyle's Irish Acres, just outside Shullsburg, and continued in the agricultural field all of his working life.

Bob dated Geneva Kammerud all throughout high school and they married in 1955. Family was always very important to Bob and he and Eve were blessed to raise 4 children in their long, happy marriage. Kristine, Thomas, Kenneth and Kelly. They also lost two sons in infancy, Michael and Kevin. Bob treasured his 7 grandchildren. He was also blessed with fourteen great grandchildren and often wished "we all lived closer" so more time could be spent together.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister and brother, lost in infancy, a son, Kelly, in 2020, and a son-in-law, Kim Lyle.

N. Charles "Puffer" Kittoe (59), Shullsburg, passed away on March 15, 2021. He was the son of Norman and Florence (McCoy) Kittoe. He married his best friend, Karen Mulcahy in 1966. Together Charles and Karen have lived their entire lives in Shullsburg. Charles worked driving truck for different area companies over the years: J.W. Foley Fuel Oil, T.F. McArdle Stock Truck, Gensler Brothers, and Eagle Picher Mines where he drove underground dump trucks. He later worked as a mechanic at Truck Country in Shullsburg before retiring.

He enjoyed fishing up north, deer hunting, stock car races, old Westerns on TV, and watching the Packers, Badgers and Brewers. He loved watching his grandchildren's baseball games and gymnastics meets and the time they spent together.

He is survived by his wife, Karen, his daughter, Pamela (Adam) Slonim, Verona, WI, three grandchildren: Dylan Reilly, Brianna Slonim, and Jacob Slonim, three sisters: Helyne (Jerry) Bausman, Dorothy Kittoe, and Betty Kittoe, and many nieces and nephews.

Dale Tucker (62), Shullsburg, died July 28, 2020 at Upland Hills Hospital, Dodgeville, WI. He was the son of Richard and Eldora (Bawden) Tucker, and lived almost his entire life in Shullsburg on the family farm. He farmed until 1993, then began working for Wayne and Nancy Gehrt. In 1997 began driving school bus in Shullsburg until his retirement. He was a member of the Evangelical Free Church, Platteville, the Benton Lions Club, the Shullsburg FFA Alumni, and Lafayette County Deputies. He served as scorekeeper and bus driver for local athletic teams for many years.

He is survived by one sister: Donna Casper (63), and four nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, and a sister: Darlene Wills (57).

Albert Gensler (62), Shullsburg, passed away on October 28, 2020 at University Hospital, Madison, WI. He was the son of Oscar and Frances (Lyne) Gensler. He married Shirley Scott (62) in 1967. They raised their family in rural Shullsburg.

Albert worked at John Deere in Dubuque, IA for 30 years and maintained a cattle farm throughout his life. He was a member of Centenary Methodist Church and the Shullsburg Free and Accepted Masons Lodge # 25. He served on the Shullsburg Township Board for 21, and as chairman for 9 years. He was past president of the Shullsburg Ambulance Board. He enjoyed hunting deer, turkey and bear, watching the Packers and Badgers and a good classic Western. His favorite times were spent with his family, traveling with Shirley, or working on his farm.

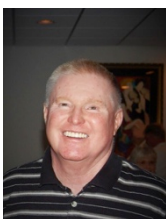

He is survived by his wife, Shirley, their children: Jeff (April) Gensler, Terry (Brittany) Gensler, and Julie (Edward) Peters, 5 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and two sisters: Joanne (John) Weiskircher and Mary Alice (Tom) Pedley. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers: Thomas, Forrest and Arden Gensler, and three sisters: Marie Kieler, Alice Heller, and Beverly Schardt.

Charles G. "Jerry" Doyle (62), Shullsburg, passed away May 4, 2021. He was the son of Thomas and Eunice (Nethery) Doyle, Shullsburg. Jerry married Mary Jo Hillary (64) in 1965. He farmed until 1990 then began working in maintenance at Eagle Ridge Resort in Galena, IL, until his retirement. He was a lifelong member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, generously using his time and talents for many jobs around the church grounds and buildings. He was Shullsburg Township Treasurer from 1987-2013. He loved woodworking to make gifts for his family and friends.

Jerry is survived by his daughters: Michelle (Rodger) Wiegel and Susan Wand, five grandchildren, his brothers: John, Denny, Eugene, Rick, and Tim Doyle, his sisters: Mary Lou Kulpinski, Joan Miles, Debra (John) Harry, and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife in 2004, and his brothers: William and Robert Doyle.

Patrick J. Lacke (63), DeForest, WI, passed away on July 13, 2021, at University Hospital in Madison. He was the son of Clarence and Eileen Lacke, Shullsburg. Pat was a talented pitcher in high school, an especially difficult feat considering he only had vision in one eye at that time. He went on to attend UW-Platteville, where he continued his baseball career and made many lifelong friends. In 1970 Pat married Mary Sue Sheehan (65). They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a quarantine-style drive-by celebration last summer.

Pat started his career with Thorp Finance Corp. in the late 1960's, and in 1976 he became an agent with American Family Insurance. His work took them to Denver, Colorado for eight years before they moved back to Wisconsin. He worked until his retirement in 2001.

Pat was blessed with a tremendous sense of humor. His friendly banter and charisma made an impact on everyone he encountered. Pat loved sports of any kind and spent many hours listening to the Badgers, Brewers and Packers on his radio. He was devoted to his family, was the first to arrive at a family reunion and a fixture at his children's and grandchildren's events. Blindness robbed him of many things, but it didn't take his joy. Pat never saw his grandchildren's faces, but he knew their hearts – which was infinitely more important.

Pat is survived by his wife, Sue; two daughters, Stephanie (Brad) Bodden and Carrie (Joel) Allin; five grandchildren; two brothers, Norbert (Mary Ann) Lacke (58), and Bob Lacke (69); two sisters, Kate (Bob) Thompson (61) and Sally (Jim) Zisser (67); three sisters-in-law, Kathy Lacke, Sally Post and Donna (Bill) Vander Velden; and two brothers-in-law, Tom Sheehan (67) and Leo Loomis. He was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Eileen Lacke; his in-laws, Norm and Rosemary Sheehan; two brothers, Jim Lacke and Bill Lacke; one sister, Ann Loomis, and two sisters-in-law, Barb Lacke and Joan Sheehan.

Thomas C. Wear (63), Seattle, WA, died April 13, 2020. He was the son of Gene and Helen Wear. In school he participated in band, forensics and varsity sports, despite childhood polio.

He graduated from UW-Platteville and earned a Masters and Doctorate degree in psychology from Kent State, Ohio. There he met and married Janeane Reagan. In his 40 year career he specialized in treating post-traumatic stress for Vietnam Veterans and military personnel of subsequent conflicts until his retirement.

He later married Susan Jenkins and together they raised two children. He is survived by his wife, Susan, his daughter, Katie (Cook) Wear, son Matt Wear, two grandchildren, and two brothers: Elden Wear (69), Gainesville, FL, and Gerry Wear (66), Vancouver, WA.

John David "Dave" Ubersox (63), South Wayne, WI, died April 12, 2021 at Memorial Hospital in Darlington. He was the son of John and Bernadine (Mayne)

Ubersox. Dave enlisted in the US Navy after graduation. He was stationed in Vietnam as a medic in the Marines. He was wounded by shrapnel during a rescue mission. He returned to safety and was being treated when the enemy invaded and opened fire, killing troops near him and also inflicting more wounds on him. He was sent home in 1966 for treatment and was awarded two purple hearts.

In 1969 Dave married the love of his life, Christine Hirsbrunner. He worked selling insurance and for Moore Business Forms in Monroe, WI, until retiring in 2003. He was a lifelong member of the Darlington Immanuel Church of Christ, and a proud member and former commander of the Shullsburg American Legion and VFW Post. He enjoyed playing ball, bowling, gardening, visiting friends and family, and family vacations. He is survived by his wife, Christine, their children: Heidi Tuescher, Angela (Marc) Kohlbauer, and son-in-law Steve Dorsey. He is also survived by his brothers: Ronald (Jeannie) (66), Randall (Connie) (72), and Bill (Jeanne) (79), one sister: Christine (Larry) Leitzinger (65), six grandchildren, 2 step-grandchildren and 4 step great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, his daughter Kimberly Dorsey, and his parents-in-law John and Geraldine Hirsbrunner.

Kay A. (Francis) Foster (68), Waukesha, died unexpectedly on July 8, 2021. She was the daughter of Joseph and Dorothy (Taufman) Francis, and grew up on their farm southeast of Shullsburg. She married James Foster in 1984 and together they raised 3 children. She loved music, teaching and playing piano, cooking and flowers. She was a member of St. Peter the Apostle Church in East Troy.

She is survived by her husband, Jim and her children: John Townsend, Jim Foster, and Ann Foster, four grandchildren, her sister Donna (Art) Teasdale (66), nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents, her son, Scott Townsend, and her sister, Elizabeth "Beth" Cameron (70).

Joan Marie (Hammer) Sheehan (69), Lancaster, WI, passed away January 5, 2021 at Sebring Assisted Care, Madison, WI, after a long and courageous battle with Alzheimer's disease. She was the daughter of Elmer and Margaret Hammer, Shullsburg. Joan married Tom Sheehan (67) in 1972. They raised their family in Lancaster. She worked at various places over the years including the Grant County Register of Deeds and Land's End. She enjoyed annual trips to Washington D.C. and New York City. Joan loved animals and had many pets during her lifetime.

She is survived by her husband, Tom, three children: Jesse Sheehan (Rachel Schmit), Angela (Abdel) Rachidi, and Hillary Sheehan, four grandchildren, three sisters: Patricia Mullen, Donna Schardt, and Kay (Mike) Gile, and many extended family members. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Helen Page, brothers-in-law: Curt Page, Eugene Mullen, and Jerry Schardt, and her in-laws, Norman and Rosemary Sheehan.

Mary Alice Pedley (67), Shullsburg, passed away May 7, 2021 at her home surrounded by her family. She was the daughter of Oscar and Francis (Lyne) Gensler. Mary Alice lived in Shullsburg almost her entire life. Following high school she worked at Advanced Transformer in Monroe and Platteville, WI until deciding to work locally at the Irish Inn and later at Antenna Plus in Shullsburg. She married her best friend, Tom Pedley, in 1981. They had a happy life together with never a dull moment. She retired to take care of her grandchildren. She loved spending time with them and cheering them on at their school and sport events.
